Join us in Tai Chi for health and relaxation. Tai Chi is literally, the connecting of individual energies to the universal energy through a series of movements. Moving simply and letting go of our own blocks allows Chi, or energy, to flow.

QiGong is a method of movement from which Tai Chi and a plethora of other movements have evolved. New students are always welcome. For more information call Rob at 802-372-4884 to verify class schedule.

“WINGS OF A BIRD / WORDS OF A POET”
ZOOM CLASS

INSTRUCTOR: Maeve Kim
Wednesday, June 23rd, 7:00 pm
LOCATION: ZOOM
Cost: $15

“Wings of a Bird, Words of a Poet” (with Angela Patten, Burlington poet) – Birds have inspired poets, novelists and song writers for hundreds of years. Hear poems both lyrical and humorous while seeing photos of the birds. Angela will join us to read some verses from her brand new book!

Maximum number of participants: 15
Participant Ages: 16 and above

It is always disarming to see a bird in flight. The great blue heron, perched on one leg like a battered armature, takes off crying out his cawchee in disgust.

We look up from our fiberglas canoe to see him suddenly become sprung rhythm, great wings beating the wind in a slow disdainful dance.

From “Ever Since Breaking My Wrist” by Angela Patten, The Oriole & the Ovenbird, (Kelsay Books 2021)

FREE INTRODUCTION TO GONG BATH RELAXATION

with Kim Muncil

Kundalini yoga classes to be announced for July and August.

INSTRUCTOR: KIM MUNCIL
Friday, June 25th, 7:00 pm - 8:00 pm
LOCATION: Island Arts Center

Gong Bath Relaxation
The sound and vibrational energy of gongs is an ancient and powerful tool that’s been practiced for thousands of years! The gong is used to help still the mind and allow the body to deeply relax. Participating in gong baths consists of lying on a yoga mat or blanket with additional blankets and a pillow if so desired. All the participants have to do is lay there and let the sound waves of the gong wash over them. Gong baths help to reduce stress and produce a better flow for emotions. Some gong tones are known to boost vitality along with enhancing a positive vibe. To prepare for relaxation there is a short time of gentle movement with breathwork. No experience is necessary. You need to bring your own yoga mat and/or blankets. Recommended for teens through adult.

Kundalini Yoga
Kundalini Yoga is different than other styles of yoga because it includes breathwork, mantra, and meditation as well as exercises and poses. Together, all these things expand energy in the body. It is an ancient practice that is powerfully uplifting. Each class is different and truly an experience. Gong bath relaxation is also a part of this practice. No experience is needed. You must bring your own yoga mat.

Kim has been teaching yoga in Albany, NY for many years.

INTRODUCTION TO ALEXANDER TECHNIQUE
(PRACTICAL DEMONSTRATION)

INSTRUCTOR: SUE COLLINSON
Saturday, July 24th, 4:00 pm - 5:00 pm
LOCATION: Studio above Garage at 34 Cardinal Lane in South Hero
REGISTRATION: $15

The Technique, which is taught internationally, seeks to help students find ease of movement by releasing habit patterns that interfere with everyday functioning. It is very useful to musicians and anyone seeking improved mastery and presence.

Sue Collinson is a graduate of the Institute for The Alexander Technique in Katonah New York. She has recently rejoined The American Society for The Alexander Technique.
Think of our language as our first art medium. As soon as we open our adorable little mouths, we’re told to use our words, and we do, we use them throughout our lives to communicate what we long for; our troubles, our delights, our ideas, our dreams, our fears, our place in the universe. Inevitably, we’ll question what is real and what is imaginary.

And so we write journals and dream about turning them into stories.

We ask ourselves, do fiction writers draw on actual incidents? Memories? Dreams? Is our journaling limited to the facts of what happened? If we invent a scene, are we liars? Can we trust our memories? Is there a greater truth revealed through our senses?

In short, how do we tap our imaginations by dipping into the endless riches of our senses, to transform bits of our lives into a story that others will want to read.

In this 2 hour session, we’ll prepare pull apart one contemporary short story drawn from daily life to see what we can learn from it. In the second hour, we’ll read a piece of our own writing and then experiment with turning it into a fascinating story.

No pressure, of course; we can learn a lot just hanging in there as a fly on the wall.

Ricki is a fiction writer living and working in a renovated railroad depot on Grand Isle with husband and dogs.

This classic musical based on Charles Dickens’ novel, Oliver Twist and is widely hailed as a true theatrical masterpiece by actors and audience members alike. The streets of Victorian England come to life as Oliver, a malnourished orphan in a workhouse, becomes the neglected apprentice of an undertaker. Oliver escapes to London and finds acceptance amongst a group of petty thieves and pickpockets led by the elderly Fagin. Adventure, discovery, friendship and acceptance are central to this classic story.

8 CUERDAS CONCERT

featuring soprano Sarah Cullins and guitarist Daniel Gaviria

at the Island Arts Center
1127 U.S. Rt 2, North Hero, VT

Mondays, August 2nd, 9th & 16th - 5:00 PM

GROUP SINGING LESSONS AND GROUP GUITAR LESSONS

at the Congregational Church
South Hero

Vermont soprano Sarah Cullins and Colombian guitarist Daniel Gaviria met in the Andes Mountains of Bogota, Colombia, and have spent the last 8 years bringing Latin American and Spanish song to the Green Mountains as the duo 8 Cuerdas. Sarah and Daniel enjoy combining their classical training and experience with their love of traditional Latin American and Spanish rhythms and folklore, exploring the multiple musical identities of Latin America and the origin of many of its influences, the Iberian Peninsula. Named for the eight strings (cuerdas) that unify this husband and wife musical team, the 8 Cuerdas duo has performed with organizations such as Spruce Peak Performing Arts, St. Paul's Cathedral Arts, Pentangle Arts, Stowe Performing Arts and the Fisk Farm Pro Artist Series. Sarah and Daniel also have prolific careers as solo musicians, appearing with renowned local groups in various genres.

www.8Cuerdas.com

8 Cuerdas’ Island Arts concert will feature audience favorites from Puerto Rico, Cuba, Brazil, Argentina and Spain, interspersed with poetry and stories about the music. Familiar composers, such as Villa-Lobos, Piazzolla, and Rodrigo, will transport listeners to the gardens of the Alhambra and the steamy streets of Buenos Aires. Other songs will highlight the virtuosity of the Spanish guitar or the operatic soprano. Hear why audiences say: “Sarah’s riveting, interpretive singing and Daniel’s virtuosic guitar playing combined in a compelling way that was emotionally charged and memorable. It was a program of highest caliber performed with conviction and connection to the audience.”

Sarah and Daniel will each offer a series of 3 group classes leading up to their 8 Cuerdas performance. Sarah’s vocal technique classes will focus on body and breathing coordination, enabling singers of any level to enhance their projection, clarity of tone and efficiency of breath control, while minimizing common tensions. Daniel’s guitar technique classes, geared towards guitarists of any style, will be an introduction into fingerstyle with a focus on really getting to know the fretboard and developing a healthy technique.

HIGH VOLTAGE

HIGH VOLTAGE, an “electrifying” barbershop quartet, was formed in the fall of 1985 and has been entertaining audiences all over Vermont, New England, New York, and Quebec ever since. All the quartet members belong to the Green Mountain Chorus and have been active in its musical and administrative leadership. Bass Don Pierce is from Colchester, Lead Eric Oberg hails from Calais, Bari Greg Morrill lives in Stowe and Tenor Charlie Church resides in Colchester. Quartet member occupations range from a retired electrical contracting firm owner, to a granite sculptor, to a retired programmer & college professor who now skis, hikes and rides bikes, to a retired financial analyst who now acts as the quartet’s worrier.

CHORDINATION

CHORDINATION is an award winning a cappella quartet singing primarily in the Barbershop style. They are 2-time winners of the Barbershop Harmony Society’s Mountain Division, scoring first place in 2017 and 2018 at the Northeast District competitions. They sing a mix of Barbershop standards, Doo Wop, 50s, American Songbook and contemporary songs. They’ve appeared live on TV in the Burlington area and sing throughout New England and Quebec.

https://www.facebook.com/Chordination4some/

THE GREEN MOUNTAIN CHORUS

THE GREEN MOUNTAIN CHORUS is the Burlington Chapter of the Barbershop Harmony Society. They were chartered in 1947 making this their 74st year of singing throughout New England. They can be seen and heard at local civic events, Burlington First Night, Barbershop singing competitions, sporting events (National Anthem singing), Holiday shows, and their own annual show. They also organize the very popular Singing Valentines program each year in Northern VT.

19TH CENTURY AMERICAN CHARM IN SONG AND DANCE

at the United Methodist Church, Hyde Road, Grand Isle, VT

featuring soprano Allison Steinmetz and tenor Cameron Steinmetz with keyboardist Artis Wodehouse on harpsichord,

The Williston-based married duo, soprano Allison and tenor Cameron Steinmetz will sing popular tunes from 19th C. America and recreate two of the iconic social dances of the period, the waltz and the polka. Accompanying the Steinmetzes will be keyboardist Artis Wodehouse, who will play on an 1864 foot-pump melodeon, a revival bentside spinet harpsichord and the modern piano.

An avid singer and actor, Cameron Steinmetz has appeared in various operas, oratorios and musicals throughout the state of Vermont. He sings tenor in the Vermont Symphony Orchestra’s Ah! Cappella educational vocal quartet, and is the Director of Music Ministry at Charlotte Congregational Church.

Described as, “brilliant, nuanced, and lyrically expressive,” Allison Steinmetz, soprano, spans her vocal artistry in classical, musical theater, and contemporary music. She has played leading roles in productions including The Telephone, The Marriage of Figaro, Candide, The Fantasticks, Into the Woods, Guys & Dolls, Once Upon A Mattress, The Mikado, and The King & I. Allison has shared the concert stage with The Manhattan Chamber Orchestra, The Lafayette Symphony Orchestra, the Green Mountain Mahler Festival, the Rutland Area Chorus, and the Vermont Collegiate Choral Consortium. Her ensemble experience includes performances with The Opera Company of Middlebury, Counterpoint Chorus, and the Green Mountain Monteverdi Ensemble.

Artis Wodehouse is known internationally for her performances on piano and the harmonium, and for her work in the player piano idiom. She has built a collection of historic keyboard instruments on which she actively performs.
The Sky is full of surprises. Returning in 2021 is Island Arts’ and the Vermont Astronomical Society’s Spontaneous Evening Under the Stars. The event is free and fun for the whole family. Join us at Orchard Hill Observatory, 70 Poor Farm Rd. in Alburgh at the end of August. Since stargazing is weather dependent, the exact day will be announced at businesses throughout the islands. Contact Joe Comeau (jkcomeau@hotmail.com) with the word “Stars” in the header to be put on the mailing list.

Hello Katya,

I am so appreciative of receiving the Priscilla Rose scholarship—it allowed me to purchase a much better quality guitar and it has an amazing sound—it has definitely enhanced my lessons and practice times.

I’d also like to thank Island Arts for their support over the past six years with helping my parents to afford guitar lessons for me. I am very thankful to have had the opportunity to learn to play quality classical guitar and I plan to continue it throughout my life. This year is my senior year in high school and I intend to continue taking guitar on through college as well. I think that Island Arts is a great encourager for families who might otherwise have difficulty providing music lessons for their children, and it helps children to gain a lifelong love of music.

Thank you,
Jackson Chairvolotti

Island Arts is pleased to announce the inauguration of a new program to promote artistic talent by young artists through Grand Isle County. THE SYLVIA BARRY ART PROJECT will conduct an annual art contest for school age contestants. Artists should submit their work through the Art Teachers in each school, local schools) or for home schooled children by an art teacher they have taken lessons from. The winners (three age groups) of the 2021-22 contest will be announced early summer of 2022 and cash prizes will be awarded.

Ms. Sylvia Barry was a prolific water colorist and painted several versions of the Homer Knight Barn (those will be on display at the Island Arts Center in 2022 along with the winning entries in the art contest). Her husband, Mr. Allen Barry, Jr. proposed and supports this program to encourage young people to engage in artistic endeavors. Application details may be obtained from Art Teachers in the schools, or directly from Mary Brennan-Centrella, Project Coordinator, Island Arts, P. O. Box 108, North Hero, VT 05474. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Courses at the Island Arts Academy are kept small intentionally and must have a minimum and maximum size. Please register early to reserve your place in the course(s) and workshops(s) in which you wish to participate.

Courses/workshops with insufficient enrollment by 3 days prior to the starting date may be cancelled. Within 7 days of the starting date, please call 802-372-8888 or email info@islandarts.org to see if space is still available in the course(s) in which you are interested.

Registering for a course is easy. Simply complete this registration form and enclose a check for the total due and mail to Island Arts, P.O. Box 108, North Hero, VT 05474. When your registration is processed, you will receive a welcome email.

Island Arts Academy will maintain a waiting list for those courses which are filled to capacity. Individuals on the waiting list will be notified if space becomes available.

CANCELLATION: If the Academy cancels a course, registered students will be notified and receive a full refund for that course. If you must cancel your participation in a course for any reason, as long as you do so at least 7 days before the class, you will receive a refund less a 20% cancellation fee to cover administrative costs. If you cancel less than 7 days before the course begins, no refund will be issued. To withdraw from the class, email the office (info@islandarts.org) or call 802-372-8888. Your cancellation will not be completed until you receive an email acknowledgement of your request.

Limited financial aid may be available to permanent Grand Isle County youth on a first come first served basis. If you are applying for financial aid, please call Ann at 802-371-7977 or the Island Arts Office at 802-372-8889 for more information.

From time to time we take photos or video during Island Arts courses. We would like your permission to use these images in our brochure, on our website or in other media (such as the Islander). Images will be selected to highlight activities. We will never reference you or your child by name or provide any specific information. The images will only be used by Island Arts to show the many ways we can have fun while participating in the Arts!

I give my permission to Island Arts to use images as described above: Yes ______ No ______
